Dear Worldwide Enamellers,

I.E.I. and Porcelain Enamel Institute are very happy to announce that a new and valuable reference book is now ready for printing:

“PORCELAIN (VITREOUS) ENAMELS
And Industrial Enamelling Processes

The preparation, Application and Properties of Enamels”

By

Silvano Pagliuca (Italy)

William D. Faust (USA).

The original Second Edition by A. I. Andrews dating back to the early 1960's has been completely revised and expanded with new technical information by the authors and with the contributions of several National Enamellers Associations.

The book will be available starting in September, 2011.

The authors believe that this book is an important addition to the Enamel and Enamelling Technology and will become a valuable literature reference for the Worldwide Enamellers' Community.

The book has been updated with the latest processes and technologies and is reporting very useful technical information. Interested persons will have a ready reference to the basic properties of Porcelain (Vitreous) Enamels.

The complete book will have 15 Chapters covering all the most important technical issues of Porcelain (Vitreous) Enamels and 6 Appendices including Enamels Standards (European and US), a photographic Enamel Defect Atlas, Fishscale Measurement Methods, an Enamel Metrics Atlas, a Glossary of Porcelain(Vitreous) Enamels Terms and Furnace Energy Consumptions and Radiating Tubes Efficiencies totalling nearly 1000 pages.

The initial pages with the Contents Index, the list of Tables, the list of Pictures, the list of Illustrations and the cover jacket of this new edition are viewable on the IEI website (www.iei-world.org).

Furthermore, the authors have the intention to keep on updating the book with addendums, possibly accordingly with the International Enamellers Congress events, every three years.

The price of the book "PORCELAIN (VITREOUS) ENAMELS and Industrial Enamelling Processes -The preparation, Application and Properties of Enamels" is 50 Euros (Approximately $ 80.00 US).

You may reserve your copy by sending an e-mail to info@iei-world.org along with the attached purchasing order form .

My best regards
